

Fortress OAM Overseas Fund

HIGHLIGHTS:

The Fund returned 5.1% in the second quarter, adding to its gains over the past year. Investments in Europe and Asia both performed well.

The OAM European Value Fund showed a gross return of 6.5% for the quarter, with strength coming from gains in shares prices as well as currencies. Fundamentals continue to improve among many European companies, and valuations remain attractive. The average Price/Earnings ratio in the Market Leaders component of the portfolio is now 16x, and the Deep Value component is 10x. Cash increased from 9% to 13%.

The OAM Asian Recovery Fund had a gross return of 6.0% in the second quarter. Asian markets continued to be led by a few large technology shares enjoying outsized gains in recent months, but the fund's holdings remain focused more broadly and in areas of better value where long-term expected returns are also better. On a look-through basis, the average Price/Earnings of the fund's holdings is 17x, with good underlying earnings growth and a dividend yield of 3%.
